

HARDWARE, FOOD AND CLOTHING OF U. S. SOLD IN BRONX

Stock Worth $500,000 Will Be Offered to Public in Armory To-Morrow.

United States Quartermasters Store No. 1 will open to-morrow morning in the Armory of the Second Field Artillery at Franklin Avenue and 166th Street, the Bronx. Clothing, food and hardware will be sold at prices much lower, generally, than can be obtained in the ordinary retail market.

One hundred and twenty salesmen will be on hand for the opening of business, and the stock at the outset will be worth about $500,000. It will include blankets, underwear, socks, shoes, rubbers, arctic, rubber boots, leggings, overalls, towels, gloves, knives, forks, spoons, mechanical tools, wicks, ash cans, many other sorts of hardware, dried apples, bacon, canned asparagus, corned beef, beans, corn, tomatoes, candy, &c. Business will be conducted on the cash and carry plan. Similar stores are to be opened in Long Island City and in Newark. M. F. Reardon is sales manager of the Bronx store.

Price lists on the new navy food sales by the city will be announced early next week by Market Commissioner Day. The sales will be opened in Jefferson Market, Queensboro Market, the Municipal Building and armories and public buildings in Brooklyn, Bronx, Richmond, and probably in Queens.

These were obtained in the city's advance order and are not part of the $4,000,000 stock of food which Dr. Day expects to distribute next week. The delay in announcing prices on this sale is due to investigations by the Department of Markets to determine retail prices on similar goods throughout the stores in New York.

The sales are now in progress at the following places: Queensboro Bridge Market, 53th Street and First Avenue; Jefferson Market, 10th Street and Sixth Avenue; 14th Regiment Armory, 8th Avenue and 15th Street, Brooklyn; 8th Coast Artillery Armory, Kingsbridge Road and Germania Avenue, Brooklyn; and Red Cross Building, St. George, S. I. On Monday additional sales places will be opened at the 13th Regiment Armory, Sunnyside and Jefferson Avenue, Brooklyn; 23d Regiment Armory, Pacific Street and Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn; two more armories in the Bronx, and two more stations in Queens County.

What is left of the army food sale fund of $2,500,000 is still tied up by court proceedings brought by E. J. Malley, formerly Deputy Commissioner of Markets.

35 CONVICTS TRANSFERRED.

Dangerous Criminals Taken From Sing Sing to Dannemora.

Thirty-five dangerous criminals, including Jordan Murphy, given a life sentence by a Brooklyn judge upon his fourth conviction for robbery, were routed out of Sing Sing yesterday and transferred in handcuffs to Clinton Prison at Dannemora.

Others in the departing draft were Elmer Schulte and Harry Simmons, convicts who broke away from prison but were recaptured; George, alias "Red" Hope, and Edward McIntyre, bandits convicted of robbery in Manhattan. The draft was ordered to relieve overcrowding of Sing Sing, but the principals on the list were selected because of a policy to rid Sing Sing of dangerous crooks.
